Bothell– Join Knight Visions Studio/Gallery this April for a retrospective art exposition of responsorial letters from the Presidents and their wives from the past 50 years written to...

Phyllis Leslie

“Dear Mr. President”

A unique retrospective art exposition into the past which represents the responses that Phyllis received concerning various key issues from the Presidents and their wives during the 20th and 21st centuries. Meet Phyllis Leslie on Thursday April 12th and April 19th from 7-9 PM and Saturday April 21st from 10-4 PM at Knight Visions Studio/Gallery in Bothell and catch a glimpse into politics that only Phyllis can explain. Phyllis is the current grange master of NorthCreek Valley Grange, President of the local Seattle chapter of NARVE-retired railroad employees– and sits on the Board for Aging for Snohomish County.

Meet Phyllis Leslie- Octogenarian & Provocateur– of the retrospective responsorial letters in Knight Visions Studio/Gallery’s latest art exposition from the Presidents and their wives in the 20th & 21st centuries– Thursday April 12th and 19th from 7-9 PM & Saturday April 21st from 10-4 PM. For a map to Knight Visions Studio, log onto their website at www.knightvisions.com. Knight Visions Studio/Gallery is nestled on a semi-historic ranch property between the Alderwood Mall area of Lynnwood and Thrasher’s Corner of Bothell.
